Founders' Day will be celebrated by the men of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity Monday night at the chapter house. The fraternity was organised at Miami university in 1848, and the amoker Monday night will be in celebration of that event. The men of the alumni chapter in Topeka will be guests of the active chapter, and there will be guests from the Kansas Alpha chapter of the State university. An orchestra will furnish music during the evening.

A party was given Thursday night at Kellam hall by Mr. Jack Smalley and Mr. Kent Moneypenny. It was quite the most up-to-date affair of the season, and was modeled after the style of fashionable parties now popular among the smart people of the cities. No detail contributing to the "class" of the affair was omitted, from the maids in the dreasing rooms to the professional vaudeville acts between the dances.

The music for the party was unusually elaborate, furnished by an orchestra of ten pleoes. A chorus from the Novelty sang, Eddle Beck in a planologue was one of the entertainers; musical comedians from the local variety show gave a performance, and there were two professional tango dancers from Chicago. The guests danced during the hours of the party The young people who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Todd Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Todd Mrs. Warrick Updegraft, Miss Pauline McVey, Miss Helen Whitted. The women of the College Alumnae club have a new plan which they are introducing into their social service work. The welfare committee of the club has recommended that the organization adopt the "big sister" movement, which means that children who have been reported to the club and a college woman will be assigned to each child to look after its needs and to be its personal friend. The cases so assigned will be those needing special attention that cannot be given by the officers. Members of the club will volunteer for the service.

At the regular tea given by the club Friday afternoon, the guests were received by the president, Miss Margaret Wellcome. Mrs. H. B. Wilson poured tea, and Miss Helen Ingham assisted her. Mr. H. B. Wilson, superintendent of the city schools, made the address after the social hour. His subject was "The Responsibility of the College Graduate to the Country." He spoke of the fitness of the women graduates to lead in civic affairs in plans for beautifying the surroundings, and especially in conservation of childhood.

The Rev. Mr. Theodore Hansen will speak at the Y. W. C. A. vesper service Sunday afternoon on "Our Responsibility." Miss Selma Foberg will sing, "Consider the Lilies," by Toplies.
